Example Questions

Question 2.

Look at the products and processes around you and identify three examples of bad designs and good designs. Identify pitfalls to avoid and features that make the product/processes work well. Apply design theories and suggest improvements.

Question 3.

Open one of the popular websites or mobile phone app and identify both the good and bad user experiences. Apply the basic concepts of user experience design to suggest improvements.